

Domestic and Sexual Violence Counselor

The mission of the Sexual Assault Response Center (SARC) in Delaware is to respond to all forms of sexual and domestic violence through specialized crisis intervention services, comprehensive prevention education programs and advocacy for the rights of victims as survivors, family members and communities. YWCA Delaware has SARC offices in New Castle County and Sussex County.

Our goal is to deliver a crisis response affirming the dignity of clients and facilitating a path of resiliency and recovery for individuals whose lives have been impacted by acts of sexual violence.

The SARC Counselor's primary responsibilities are to provide comprehensive counseling services for primary and secondary survivors of sexual violence to include individual and group therapy in Sussex County, Delaware. The counselor will provide services in the SARC office and high school wellness centers in Sussex County. This position will also coordinate counseling services with the Sussex County Coordinator and Aftercare and Resource Coordinator. And the position will include Helpline, On Call and Supervisory shift coverage for program services to ensure 24/7 access.

The position reports to the Lead Counselor.

Qualifications: Candidates must have a minimum of 1 (one) year professional experience working in human service industry; preferably providing direct counseling services in sexual violence advocacy work for trauma survivors. Master's degree from an accredited college or university in human service field, social work or relevant field plus a valid DE License required.

Job Type: Full-time, exempt

We offer a comprehensive benefits package

Qualified candidates should send a cover letter and resume to resume@ywcade.org

YWCA Delaware is an equal opportunity employer. We are committed to inclusivity and encourage qualified candidates from all cultures and communities to apply.

YWCA Delaware is a leading advocate for women by providing housing, violence prevention and sexual assault crisis services, financial empowerment, racial justice and youth programming. We empower women politically, financially and socially while fostering the confidence and can-do attitude needed to eliminate barriers and overcome life's obstacles. We are a statewide organization headquartered in Wilmington, Delaware. Annually we serve approximately 6,700 participants within our comprehensive programs. Our mission to eliminate racism, empower women, stand up for social justice, help families and strengthen communities.

No phone calls please