An Opportunity to be Heard
The Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Communications Contest

Speak up! Share how Dr. King’s life and work speaks to your dreams.

Guided by Dr. King’s work in the 1960’s for nonviolent social change, what do you propose to improve your future and our communities?

Why participate?

• Your voice will be heard!
• Win – $2,000 1st place, $1,000 2nd place, $500 3rd place
• Tap into your favorite creative means of expression whether it’s poetry, rap, or speech to deliver your message with creative freedom
• Share your ideas and connect with community leaders, educators and government officials
• Attend a writing or presentation workshop with area experts who offer guidance in preparing and delivering your “message”*
• Cultivate skills that will serve you academically and professionally in future pursuits
• Record your presentation and share your creative work for college applications
• Service hours available upon request
